1. Updated Order Forms

Our full color student booklets are now ordered and distributed through Rowman and Littlefield Publishers. The company policy is to give a 20% discount to non-profit religious organizations. Therefore, please include a copy of your school's tax deductible certificate with your first order. You may access the order form here (Matok Rowman Littlefield).

Orders and distribution of our "black and white" booklets are handled by the MaToK Project Director. The order form may be accessed here (b & w).

2. English Editions

The following booklets are now available in English (The Biblical text remains in Hebrew, as do proper nouns, colors, etc.—only the exercises, questions, and activities have been translated into English.)

Lekh Lekha
Vayetze
Shemot
Va'era-Bo
Noach (b&w)
B'midbar-Naso (b&w)
Korach (b&w)

3. Teachers' Guides

Each unit has teachers' guides in Hebrew and English. They are available for $7.50 per guide as pdf files that may be downloaded and printed out for your convenience. Order directly from the project director by email. We are also looking for teachers who might be interested in updating one of the guides that they currently use.

4. Professional Development

Schools and teachers new to MaTok should be trained in the principles and methodology of the curriculum. Workshops can be arranged on-site at your school, regionally if there are a few schools in your geographical area interested in participating, or via webinar. For more information, please contact the project director.

5. New Unit for Grades 7/8: Sefer Yonah

This unit, including teachers' guide, will be available to the public in September 2016. Teachers using this unit are asked to participate in several hours of training in June or August. Pdf files of samples of a few pages of the unit are available upon request. Please contact the Project Director for more information.
